Excerpt: . . . nothing for the support of his little ones. NO wonder they took to industries to support themselves, which, indeed, they so effectually plied, as to achieve both fame and fortune in the issue. It is strange that the Conference was so slow to awake to the injustice of cutting a preacher, bereaved of his wife, down to a single mans allowance, almost as soon as the breath was out of her body, leaving him, at the moment his expenses were necessarily increased, with half the resources he had claimed before. A year or two after that, two married ministers occupied the same Circuit, in a District over which I happened to preside. One of them, the superintendent, lost his wife about the middle of the year; his colleague insisted that for the balance of the time the quarterage must be divided, not equally as...
