Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .annual report of this department a copy of which I am sending you under separate cover. This decision has also been affirmed by the present attorneygeneral s office during the last year. This question was very clearly and squarely stated to the attorney-general by myself and Pres. E. R. Nichols in August, 1906, in an agreed statement of facts which you will find in the above report as quoted. Now, I feel impelled to stand for the enforcement of the law as outlined in the attorney-generalOs decision of August 16, 1906, covering that class of laborers, workmen and mechanics employed as extra men, whether employed by the hour or day, or whether employed by the month ostensibly, where ten hours a day and twenty-six or twenty-seven working days are required to constitute a month, and where subdivisions of said month based upon the daily or hourly...
