Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Feliciella s Easter: And Some Other Simple Stories and Verses for the Season Feliciella was climbing the steep stairs of the great cliffs between Capri and Ana Capri. Although there are in all five hundred and thirty-five steps, and some of them so fallen into decay as to give her quite a scramble over their ruins, Feliciella always preferred them to the new road winding about the perpendicular cliffs. It is a shorter way by the stairs, but Feliciella liked them because they were old and had served the Capri people for two thousand years. Her energetic bare feet had reached the castle of Barbarossa, the robber chieftain, now a long-deserted, hoary ruin. Here the steps were cut in the solid rock of a savage crag which descends vertically twelve hundred feet to the sea, on the other side. Below her, sea and sky and the village of Capri, snuggled in between great rocks, seemed steeped in rest. It has an oriental aspect, the little town, with its many-domed cathedral, which suggests a mosque. There are other little domes and arches of the small stuccoed dwellings, yellow, pink, light green, and white, clustered in picturesque confusion on a sort of terrace. Here and there a palm tree rose. The hillsides were misty with the gray-green of olives. The orange groves in their midst glistened in the sunshine.
