Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speech of Hon.: Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, on His Resolutions Relative to the Rights of Property in the Territories, Etc, Delivered in the Senate of the United States, May 7, 1860 Mr. Davis, of Mississippi, said: Mr. President: Among the many blessings for which we are indebted to our ancestry, is that of transmitting to us a written Constitution; a fixed standard to which, in the progress of events, every case may be referred and by which it may be measured. But for this the wise men who formed our Government dared not have hoped for its perpetuity; for they saw floating down the tide of time, wreck after wreck, marking the short life of every Republic which had preceded them. With this, however, to check, to restrain, and to direct their posterity, they might reasonably hope the Government they founded should last forever; that it would secure the great purposes for which it was ordained and established; that it would be the shield of their posterity equally in every part of the-country, and equally in...
