However, these measures are not sufficient to deal with the financial realities that the Postal Service faces. Thus, the new revenue initiatives need to be put into place. And I believe that the customers are comfortable, provided alternative access is available, that is, as you point out, Mr. Chairman, as it relates to doing so-called multi-tasking, be it grocery shopping and pharmacies and so forth, such actions are likely essential to future growth, and the Postal Service needs to do as other outfits have been able to do, and that is, follow your market, so to speak. These new revenue initiatives, I think, can only enhance the financial stability that we need to get to. Senator C. Thank you. One of the biggest issues that the ARPER Congress and the Postal Service will face in the coming months is the question of whether delivery frequency should be...
