Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Elect Committee: Appointed to Consider and Report on Telegraph Extension; Ordered by the House of Assembly to Be Printed, 1870 The Committee having inquired into the matters referred to it, begs to report: That telegraphic communication with Queen s Town might be established from Fort Beaufort at a cost for construction of 3,000, and that the annual expense to be incurred for maintenance and working would be about 250. That the position of Queen s Town upon the immediate border of the Colony, at a point where, in the event of native disturbances, extensive military operations would in all probability have to be directed from, together with its importance in a commercial point of view, is such as to make it very desirable to have communication with it by means of the telegraph; and the Committee have reason to believe that the revenue to be derived from the transmission of messages to and from Queen s Town would be equal, in amount at least, to that derived from any other town along...
